TO MAKE NO ARRESTS

JUSTICE MURPHY WILL MERELY ANNOUNCE HIS FINDINGS IN BURDICK CASE.

INQUEST FORMALLY CLOSES

Quinn and King of New York the Only Witnesses Called to the Stand—Pennell Inquest Postponed Indefinitely Because of Absence of Witnesses From the City—Pressure Being Brought to Avert the Inquiry.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 31.—Justice Murphy is to announce his findings in the Burdick inquest in police court in the morning. No arrests will be made; no warrants will be issued. The court's findings will be interesting as a closing commentary on the famous case. The inquest was closed formally by Judge Murphy after hearing the testimony of Quinn and King, the former bartender and cashier of the Hotel Roland in New York, about Pennell's alleged statement to them of his willingness to kill one man even if he went to the gallows for it. No other witnesses were called.

It is possible that between the lines of Justice Murphy's findings may be found something indicative of the circumstances that might cause it to be deemed necessary to prolong the Burdick case or to delay the beginning of the Pennell case. It will be necessary only for Judge Murphy to announce the hour and the date for the Pennell inquest should it be deemed necessary to hold one.

The Pennell inquest, which Judge Murphy announced would begin Monday morning, was postponed indefinitely. The reason announced was the absence of witnesses from the city. District Attorney Coatsworth was in court and said he was ready to go ahead and that the postponement was not at his request. One witness was absent from the city. He was Wallace Thayer, Pennell's attorney and confidential friend up to the time of his death. A dozen or more witnesses in the Pennell inquest were present ready to give testimony, so if deemed advisable, the inquest could have proceeded and at some later day Mr. Thayer could have been examined.

Opposed to an Inquest.

Considerable pressure has been brought to bear by friends of the Pennells to avert the inquest and postpone it indefinitely if not block it permanently. The efforts, of course, had no weight with the court, and Judge Murphy's decision not to hold the inquest at present was based on all the circumstances of the case. When the Pennell inquest will be held, if at all, is not yet settled. When it is held the probability is that neither in Pennell's papers nor efforts will anything be produced to throw light on the affairs of Burdick or to add any valuable information to the Burdick case. The Pennell heirs have been reluctant from the outset to have any of the dead man's papers made public. When Justice Murphy was about to begin the Pennell inquest last week at the close of the Burdick inquest, Attorney Thomas Penney appeared before Judge Murphy in private and argued earnestly against beginning the inquest at that time and opposed holding any inquest. Mr. Penney insisted upon the postponement and Judge Murphy yielded, but announced to Mr. Penney and also from the bench that the Pennell inquest would begin at 10 o'clock Monday morning. After considering the matter and learning that Attorney Thayer was out of the city, Judge Murphy postponed the Pennell inquest indefinitely.

Judge Murphy's course in no way will affect his hearing at any future time any evidence on the Burdick case or Pennell inquest if he should deem it advisable to hold one. After announcing his findings in the Burdick case he could reopen the case at some future date and hear evidence, if the police should discover additional information of value, even though the interval should be a lengthy one.

RESULT OF GHASTLY JOKE.

Four Men Frightfully Burned by Explosion of Gunpowder.

Batavia, N. Y., March 31.—As a result of what was intended to be a joke, four men were frightfully burned and disfigured by the explosion of a twenty-pound keg of gunpowder in the mines of the United States Gypsum company, near Oakfield.

The injured were Driller Fred Haywood and his assistant, Bert Sage, and two miners who were engaged in showing the small cars on which the product of the mines was placed. The miners reached the point where Haywood and Sage were working. One laborer, it is said, saw a small quantity of powder lying loose near the powder keg and for fun touched his torch to it. A terrific explosion followed.

KILLS HIS DAUGHTER.

Prominent Colorado Ranchman Then Shoots Himself.

Bayfield, Colo., March 31.—H. Patterson, a ranchman, visited his divorced wife to see his six-year-old daughter, and while the child was sitting in his lap, drew a revolver and shot her through the heart and then killed himself. Patterson and his wife were both members of prominent families.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS ARE HELD THROUGHOUT IOWA

Contests in Nearly All Cases Involve Purely Local Issues and Are Not Significant.

Des Moines, Ia., March 31.—City and town elections were held throughout Iowa Monday except in some of the larger cities which are under special charter. The contests were in nearly all cases non-partisan, involving purely local issues and the results are no indication of the trend of political opinion. Pella, normally Democratic, elected a Republican mayor for the second time in its history. Following are some of the mayors selected:

Iowa Falls—J. P. Funk, Republican. Ames—Harley Sheldon, Democrat. Pella—D. S. Huber, Republican. Albion—J. J. Hardenbrook, Republican.

Newton—Frank S. Long, Republican. Cedar Rapids—H. H. Hemenway, Republican.

Iowa City—Mr. Stebbins, Republican. Winterset—John M. Andrews, Republican.

Waterloo—P. J. Martin, Peoples. Atlantic—J. A. McWald, Republican. Sac City—Phil Schaller, Republican.

Indianola—E. F. Clayton, Republican. Marshalltown—T. B. Jones, Peoples.

Fort Dodge—A. H. Northrup, Republican. Boone—D. J. Snell, Republican.

Ottumwa—T. H. Pickler, Democrat. Creston—Republican mayor.

Oskaloosa—John C. Williams, Democrat.

PANIC IN A THEATER.

Irish-Americans Mob Actors in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, March 31.—A panic was precipitated at the People's theater here when the actors in the farce, "McFadden's Row of Flats," were mobbed by a throng of Irish-Americans. Eighteen men were arrested and held without bail, charged with inciting riot.

The disturbance occurred in the first act. While Arthur Whitelaw was singing "Mr. Dooley" he was greeted with a shower of eggs and some person in the audience discharged a pistol. Immediately there was a rush for the exits and in the excitement women and children were trampled upon. None was seriously injured, however.

The police authorities were notified and three patrol wagons filled with policemen were dispatched to the scene. The disturbers were inclined to resist arrest and there was a lively encounter, but the riotous element was quickly subdued.

WANTS THE REAL ARTICLE.

Mark Twain Favors Old-Time Steamboat Race.

New York, March 31.—Mark Twain has recalled the days when he was pilot on the Mississippi river in a letter to David R. Francis, president of the St. Louis exposition commission, in response to Sir Thomas Lipton's suggestion that a series of old-time steamboat races be inaugurated as a feature of the exposition.

Mark Twain wants a genuine reproduction of the old-time race with negro roustabouts chanting singers; the use of the torch basket rather than the searchlight, and the extinguishment of the latter-day government lights so that the quality of the piloting would count where the boats are evenly matched in speed.

"As a spectacle," writes Mark Twain, "nothing could add to it except an old-time blow-up as the boats finished the home stretch. But this should not be arranged; it is better left to Providence and prayer."

SHOOTS AT NOVELIST.

Young Woman Attempts to Kill M. Prevost in Paris.

Paris, March 31.—Considerable stir was created here by the news of an attempt to shoot the well-known novelist, Marcel Prevost. It appears that as M. Prevost was entering the offices of the Society of Men of Letters, a stylishly dressed young woman whose name was afterward given as Emma Tourret, alighted quickly from a carriage and fired two shots from a revolver at him, at the same time calling him by name. Both shots missed, and the woman was about to fire a third time when M. Prevost disarmed her.

She was arrested but afterwards released.

The cause of the shooting is said by the lady to have been M. Prevost's avoidance of her.

FAST TRAIN WRECKED.

Passengers Suffering From Minor Cuts and Bruises.

Corry, Pa., March 31.—The Erie railroad fast Cleveland train was wrecked at Concord, six miles west of this city. The train, made up of a baggage and cafe car, three Pullmans and two coaches, jumped the track and turned over. Mrs. C. T. Hennessy of New York, an occupant of the cafe car, was slightly injured. Others are suffering from shocks, cuts and bruises. Several cars were smashed up.

Mayflower Stormbound.

Washington, March 31.—Mrs. Roosevelt and her children, who are aboard the president's yacht Mayflower, en route to the Atlantic ocean, are storm-bound at Riverside, about fifty miles down the Potomac river, where the vessel will remain until the weather clears.

FROM WIND AND WAVE

HEAVY DAMAGE ASHORE AND AFLOAT FROM A GALE AT NEWPORT NEWS.

REACHES DANGER POINT

Tide Rises to Within Two Feet of the Pier Floors and Threatens to Bring Great Disaster to Property—Schooner Hull Sinks at Her Anchorage—Captain and Crew Rescued After Being Exposed for Hours.

Newport News, Va., March 31.—Heavy damage ashore and afloat was wrought by wind and water during the storm which has raged in the past twenty-four hours. The storm culminated in a veritable gale. The tide reached a danger point within two feet of level of the floors of the piers and threatened to bring great disaster to the property along the water front.

The two-masted schooner William R. Hull, bound up the James river to Norfolk with 35,000 brick, sank at her anchorage. The captain and crew of two men, the latter negroes, were exposed to the storm in a small open boat for hours and were rescued, almost frozen, by the Chesapeake and Ohio tug Alice. Two deaths have been reported.

The four-masted coal schooner Charles L. Davenport went ashore at Old Point Comfort. She will be a total loss. The crew landed safely.

STORM CREATES HAVOC.

Sweeps Down Atlantic Coast and Ties Up Coastwise Trade.

Norfolk, Va., March 31.—The northeast storm that swept down the Atlantic coast played havoc among the small shipping and tied up coastwise trade almost entirely. The high tide here prevailing in the river flooded the streets in the lower section of this city and for a time traffic was suspended.

MATE WASHED OVERBOARD.

Schooner J. C. Butterick Goes Ashore in a Gale.

Wilmington, N. C., March 31.—The lumber schooner J. C. Butterick went ashore during Sunday night's gale and is a total loss. The mate was washed overboard, but the captain, his wife and the crew of seven were rescued.

Captain and Crew Rescued.

Cape Henry, Va., March 31.—The lumber-laden schooner Benj. Russell, Captain Cramer, went ashore near Creeds Hill life saving station in North Carolina. The captain and crew of five men were rescued in the breeches buoy.

LITTLE CHANGE IN SITUATION.

Cutting of Levee at Greenville Has Given No Relief.

Greenville, Miss., March 31.—There is little change in the flood situation. The cutting of the protection levee at the northern border of the town has given no perceptible relief in letting out the water. On the contrary, a rise is still in progress generally throughout the city.

The big crevasse three miles south of the city continues to widen.

So far as known not a single life has been lost as a result of the breaking of the levee and the subsequent flooding of the country. The negro family, a woman and five children, that was reported to have perished, was rescued.

Rescue boats are out in every direction and all refugees brought to the city are being cared for. In Greenville the water is causing endless inconvenience and much damage, but the city and its inhabitants are not considered to be in the slightest danger should the water go much higher. Persons who have returned from the crevasse south of the city report that a second break has occurred about five hundred feet north of the first. The new crevasse is about four hundred feet wide. This new opening will add to the volume of water that is flowing inland from the swollen Mississippi and make greater the overflowed area.

DANGER IS GREAT.

Mud Boils Appear in Levee at Mayersville, Miss.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 31.—Mud boils appeared in the levee at Mayersville late in the afternoon and almost the entire male population is working at the danger point. Telephone messages state that the danger is great and citizens are complaining of the levee board's action in withdrawing the guards from the levee in that city.

HEROIC ELEVATOR BOY.

Saves the Lives of Guests of a Minneapolis Hotel.

Minneapolis, March 31.—Three score of guests at the Brunswick hotel, Hennepin avenue and Fourth street south, probably owe their lives to the heroic work of Fred Walton, the elevator boy. While flames and smoke enveloped his cage, Walton bravely stuck to his post until every guest was taken from the burning building. Then the boy staggered to the street, almost suffocated by the smoke and gases.

The fire, which started in the basement kitchen, started shortly before 9:20 o'clock, and completely destroyed the alley wing of the hotel.

SERIOUS ENGAGEMENT IN SANTO DOMINGO

Government Troops Sustain Loss of Twenty-seven Killed and Forty-five Wounded.

Cape Haytien, Hayti, March 31.—A serious engagement took place on Saturday between the Dominican government troops and the revolutionary forces at Juan Calvo, near the town of Bajabon. The losses on the government side were 27 killed and 43 wounded, while the revolutionaries lost 5 killed and 11 wounded. The telegraph line is interrupted beyond Cap-Haitien. It is rumored here that the government troops have surrounded the capital, Santo Domingo, and that a battle is imminent.

New York, March 31.—The following dispatch was received by the consul of Santo Domingo at this port from Governor Casares at Santiago in that republic:

"General Horacio Vasquez captured the cruiser Independencia at Marcoris; all the chiefs of revolution on board captured and are imprisoned. Revolutionists now confined to Santo Domingo City, where they are besieged by government troops. Rest of country is with government."

Santo Domingo, March 31.—The commissioners who were sent to the towns of Barahona, Azua de Compostella and San Pedro de Macoris to endeavor to obtain their adhesion to the revolutionary movement have returned here. Their mission was a failure. The situation is unchanged. The city is quiet, expecting news of events in the north of the island. In the meantime business is at a standstill. It is difficult to foresee the final outcome.

PUERTO CORTEZ CAPTURED.

General Bonilla Sweeping Every Point in Spanish Honduras.

New Orleans, March 31.—The fruit steamer Breakwater reached port with news that General Bonilla and his army is sweeping every point in Spanish Honduras and that it is only a matter of a few days until Tegucigalpa, the capital, falls into his hands, if he does not occupy it already.

Puerto Cortez, the most important port on the Atlantic coast, was captured March 22. The fall was easy, as the government troops mutined and killed Mayor de Plaza and the second officer. Commandant Vallardi of the Puerto Cortez district escaped, with all the money available, on board the gunboat Tatumbla, the navy of President Arias. Sailing to Belize, Vallardi went ashore, leaving the money on board. No sooner had he left the ship than her crew steered her out to sea and she is now a pirate in unknown seas without a flag or country.

San Pedro was captured by the rebels March 24. Mrs. Aris, wife of the president, who is in a dying condition, escaped from Puerto Cortez one day before the fall, on board the United States collier Brutus. She was afterwards transferred to the Marietta and carried to Puerto Barrios, Guatemala, for safety.

DANGER OF WAR AVERTED.

Presidents of Guatemala and Salvador Have an Interview.

Washington, March 31.—United States Minister Combs at Guatemala cables the state department that the presidents of Guatemala and Salvador have had an interview and as result the conditions are so much improved that the minister regards the danger of war averted.

The United States consul at San Juan Norte cables that another revolution has broken out in Nicaragua, but he gives no details.

WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS.

State Troops Will Be Ready for Inspection During April.

Washington, March 31.—Prompt and satisfactory responses have been received at the war department from adjutant generals of states and territories to the recent telegraphic inquiry as to when the organized militia would be ready for personal inspection by an army officer in order to determine the number of magazine arms and equipments to be issued to them under the provisions of the new militia law. With only few exceptions the state troops will be ready for the proposed inspection during the month of April, and it is expected that the war department will be able to announce its plan for the inspection in a few days.

There are 2,065 organizations in the several states, stationed at 1,165 places, making the proposed inspection an undertaking of great magnitude.

Akron, O., March 31.—The plants of the American Bicycle company and the India Rubber company were totally destroyed. Several workmen were badly burned. The total financial loss is estimated at $250,000.

RESULT OF A QUARREL. Mrs. Schoonover Dead and Her Husband Badly Burned. Pittsburgh, March 31.—Mrs. Catherine Schoonover of Allegheny is dead and her husband, Douglass Schoonover, is in the hospital, badly burned about the hands and face, as the result of a quarrel. Schoonover told the police that he came home for supper and was accused by his wife of infidelity. He says after he had listened to her talk for some time he told her to shut up. He then picked up a lamp as if to throw it at her. The lamp exploded and the burning oil set fire to the woman's clothing. Schoonover said he tried to extinguish the flames, but his wife was dead before he succeeded.

No Cause for Alarm. "Ah," sighed Mr. Henpeck, "it's a pity the way most great men's sons turn out. It's only in rare cases that they amount to anything." "I hope," the lady returned, "that you are not worrying about our child in this connection."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Out of Place. A sentry, an Irishman, was on post duty for the first time at night, when the officer of the day approached. He called, "Who comes there?" "Officer of the day," was the reply. "Then what are yez doin' out at night?" asked the sentry.—London Fun.

Crucial Test. A great struggle arises in a woman's mind when she is asked what her new gown cost. She is always in doubt whether to cut the price in half and make you envy her the bargain or double it and make you envy her affluence.—Spare Moments.

HUSBAND SHOT DEAD. Man Who Calls on the Wife Guilty of the Murder. New York, March 31.—Filled with jealous anger at finding another man being entertained by his wife, William J. Peppier of East 119th street threw the visitor out into the hall, fought him from the third floor to the front door of the apartment house in which he lived, with the wife screaming and weeping at their heels, and was there shot dead by the man who, he thought, had wronged him. This man was William Earl Dobson, a cashier in a store, broker's office. Peppier was twenty-six years old and a clerk. He had not been married long. A policeman, summoned by the cries of the other tenants of the house who were alarmed by the shooting, rushed into the building and in the hall stumbled over the dead body of Peppier, on which his wife was lying unconscious. Peppier had been shot in the side, the bullet passing clear through the body. Dobson is said to be a married man with a wife and two children living somewhere in North Carolina. Dobson was arrested in the apartments of friends living in West 111th street. He took his arrest calmly and refused to make any statement.

IN FEAR OF ARREST. Ohio Barber Kills His Sweetheart and Commits Suicide. Chillicothe, O., March 31.—Forrest McCord, a barber aged twenty-four years, killed Charity Storts, a girl aged twenty years, by cutting her throat from ear to ear, after which he cut his own throat in a like manner. The deed was done at the girl's home. McCord and a number of companions were drinking heavily Sunday and he struck one of them with a beer bottle. A warrant was issued for his arrest. McCord and Miss Storts had been sweethearts for several years. It is supposed that McCord, fearing arrest, was filled with remorse and decided to end his life and that of the girl.

COMMISSION MEETS. Declines to Forward American Silver Indemnity Bond. ORDER GOES INTO EFFECT TOMORROW

REGULAR PASSENGER PUT ON

From Morris to Little Falls and Return--Freights from Brainerd to Little Falls.

Beginning tomorrow morning the new order relative to the change in the schedule of the trains on the Little Falls & Dakota branch of the N. P. goes into effect and the regular accommodation which has run for some time between this city and Morris will be discontinued.

There will be a daily (except Sunday) passenger train on the branch from Morris to Little Falls and return, and only freight trains will run between Brainerd and Little Falls. There will be a freight train leaving Brainerd at the same hour, 7:30 a. m., and returning from Morris on the same schedule as the old mixed train.

It is understood that J. L. Smith, an old conductor on the main line, is to have the new train. The change in these trains will make some little difference to Brainerd, as some of the old men will go. Conductors Desch and Day, it is said, will have the freight runs. Express Messenger Hi Moore will probably have to move to Morris, although he has received no official notice of a removal.

The passenger will leave Morris at 7:20 a. m. and arrive at Little Falls at 10:45, connecting with the North Coast Limited that goes south at 10:53. Returning to Morris the train will leave Little Falls at 2:15 p. m. and arrive at Morris at 5:45.

The former mixed train will be changed to a freight train, and will not include any passenger, mail or express cars. The time will be the same as heretofore. The train will be allowed to carry passengers. The new train will be a great convenience to people living along the line between Little Falls and Morris. When the road was first operated in 1882 a regular passenger train was run on the line, and continued in service for several years. For several years past the only service has been a mixed train running from Brainerd to Morris and return.

FORM MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION HERE

Interesting Meeting of Merchants of the City Held Last Night in Chambers.

TO COMPLETE ORGANIZATION.

Matter of Protection of Merchants in Business Here is Discussed at Length.

There was an enthusiastic and interesting meeting of the merchants and business men of the city last night in council chambers, quite a large number having turned out in response to the call published in the DISPATCH the past two or three days.

The meeting was odd in that no one seemed to know after convening what was its primary object, but it did not take long for the gentlemen to warm up to some questions which are of vital importance to their welfare.

Contrary to what had been expected the question of early closing did not receive much attention at the hands of the merchants, it being considered that after the pledge was made to close the stores at 6:30 o'clock in the evening that it would be a breach of trust to go back on their word. The matter was discussed some and there were those who stated that they were in favor of keeping the stores open for a time before the petition was circulated by the clerks' union, but they had all signed their names and they were willing to abide by the results.

Con O'Brien was named as chairman of the meeting, and C. H. Paine was named as secretary.

One of the most important matters taken up, really the primary object, was the consideration of the plan to organize a merchants protective association.

This matter was before the merchants at one time about a year ago, but nothing definite was ever done. Last night it was the general opinion that such an organization in Brainerd would prove valuable. Several of the merchants expressed a desire to use some concerted effort to make Brainerd an unpleasant abode for the traveling peddler and the common tax dodger. Several of this class of merchants have located in Brainerd. They have opened up their respective places of business, sold clothing and other goods at a very low figure, and after unloading a conglomerated mass of stuff on the public, and just before the assessor hovered in sight, pulled their stakes and moved to greener fields and pastures new. It is considered by the merchants of Brainerd a great graft, but they do not intend to tolerate such work in the future.

Nearly all those present last evening expressed an opinion on the matter of perfecting the new organization and many valuable points were raised.

It was finally decided to appoint a committee to draft by-laws and a constitution, and Chairman O'Brien appointed the following gentlemen: C. D. Johnson, A. L. Hoffmap, H. I. Cohen and Fred Gruenhagen.

Another meeting will be called in a short time and the organization will be perfected.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"STETSON'S UNCLE TOM."

Next Thursday evening at the Brainerd theatre "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be presented under the management of Leon W. Washburn. The part of Uncle Tom is played by Mr. Thos. Davis, probably the best known impersonator of the character. He was the original Tom in Stetson's company, which has been before the public for many years. Misses Florence Tucker and Parnell Johnson are the topies and Mr. Will Reap and Col. Sawyer play the character of Marks, the lawyers. There will be people in the cast who are players of ability. Among the specialties to be introduced will be the buck and wing dancing of Mr. Tom Kelley, the superb vocal numbers of the Ladies' Creole Quartette and the "Lone Star State" quintette. The scenery of this production is said to be fine, the transformation scene and wonderful vision being beautiful in design and effect. A grand street parade will be given on the day of the show in which will be seen Col. Sawyer's challenge pack of genuine bloodhounds, prize Shetland ponies, a number of beautiful chariot and tableau wagons and two bands of music, drum corps, etc., etc. Watch for the parade.

JUDGE HOLLAND'S TRIP TO THE COAST

His Experiences and Impressions Interestingly Told for Dispatch Readers.

SAW CHINATOWN BY GASLIGHT

And Met During His Trip Many Former Brainerd Residents Now on the Coast.

At the request of the DISPATCH, Judge Holland writes of his Pacific coast trip as follows:

In January last I purchased a ticket in the Burlington office in St. Paul, for $123.50, which took me through Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans, then over the Southern Pacific railroad, through southern Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona up through Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sacramento in California to Portland, Oregon, then on over the Northern Pacific through Olympia, Tacoma, Spokane, back to St. Paul. The Southern Pacific R. R. extends from New Orleans to Portland, Oregon, a distance of over 3,200 miles, and the Northern Pacific extends from Portland to St. Paul, a distance of about 2,000 miles.

After I purchased my ticket, I boarded the 8 p. m. Burlington train, smoked some cigars for a pastime and then retired, but not feeling very sleepy, I turned on the electricity and read until sleep came, and woke up near Chicago the next morning. When the train reached the depot, I went to the Great Northern hotel and had breakfast. My experience in Chicago is of no interest to my friends generally, but of more interest to me than any other part of the trip.

Charles E. Vroman was one of my classmates all the years I was in the university at Madison, Wisconsin. I knew he was practicing law in Chicago, but had not seen him since February, 1870. After breakfast I examined the directory, and found the law firm of which he was a member had their office in the First National bank block. I called at their office and found Mr. Vroman in his private office. We knew each other on sight and just as quick as we would the last time we met, which was 33 years before.

We had much to talk about until we parted. We took a street car and went out to his house to lunch. His wife graduated from the normal department of the university at the same time our class graduated in the university. She and her sister were the belles at the university and in the city of Madison while they were in school there.

Mr. Vroman said to his wife, "Do you recognize this gentleman?" She came up near me and gave me a scrutinizing look and then turned to her husband and said in a slow deliberate way, "no I never saw him before." Her husband then said to her, "do you recognize any of the features of our old classmate and college chum, George Holland?" She extended her hand and commenced to laugh. "He has not changed a bit," she said. Thirty-five years had then passed since I last saw her.

When I left Chicago, I went to St. Louis over the Chicago & Alton railroad, then on to New Orleans, over the Iron Mountain and Texas Pacific railroad.

When we reached New Orleans, I went to the new St. Charles hotel. The new St. Charles hotel occupies the same ground where stood the old St. Charles, which burned since I was there last.

The new St. Charles was built by a combination of capital and extends from one street across the block to the other. It is furnished with marble inside and is said to be absolutely fire proof. When I stepped up to the counter and asked if I could get a room, the clerk said we can accommodate 500 guests but every room is occupied. A tourist standing near said, "we have been to every hotel in this city and there is not a vacant room in any of them."

I stepped up to the desk and registered and said to the clerk, "kindly mark the number of the first room vacant opposite my name." He said "I will do so," and I got a room before 10 o'clock that night.

I did not stay but a few days in New Orleans, as I had seen the city before. I spent several weeks there during the exposition of the winter of 1884, or about that year. The new buildings, blocks and improved condition of the streets attracted my attention. About the same condition of affairs can be seen in either of the Twin cities.

I spent some time examining the shipping, levees, public buildings and Ponchartrain lake surroundings.

I took considerable interest in examining the levees. I rode along near the levee in the street car, and in places where I noticed the levee, it seemed to be about 15 feet higher than the street railroad track. The street car that I was in stopped about five miles up the river from Canal street. I got off and went out to the levee and walked along on top and tried to imagine the Mississippi river 15 or 20 feet higher. The Mississippi was very low when I was there. I see by the papers now that the Mississippi is more than 20 feet higher than it was then. This would bring the Mississippi river higher than the top of some of the small houses on the opposite side of the levee from the river, and within a few rods from it.

The immense crowd of tourists from the north and east in New Orleans, I found in nearly every other principal southern city I was in.

Mr. Watchman is the manager and head clerk of the hotel and is especially adapted for the business. He can read human nature as easily as a bank officer and is so gentlemanly and courteous to the guests that any of them will point for the St. Charles if he ever finds himself in New Orleans again.

I left New Orleans on the 9 p. m. train. We went up the river on the New Orleans side ten or fifteen miles and were ferried across the Mississippi river and went across the southern part of Louisiana and Texas through the great oil center, Beaumont, San Antonio to El Paso. For over thirty hours after we left New Orleans we were passing through as good land and country as can be found anywhere.

Early the second morning out from New Orleans we came into the desert. There was neither grass, shrubbery or vegetation. The entire surface of the ground as far as the eye could see and continuing along the road from the early morning until ten or eleven o'clock, was covered with broken stones. The broken stones lay on the ground there about the same as they do on our streets here after the street commissioner covers the streets.

The broken stones are of various sizes and of a red yellowish hue. This was the most peculiar desert I ever saw or heard of, and it was very hard to imagine how broken crushed stones were so evenly and nicely spread over the entire surface of the ground.

From the stone covered ground the sand desert extended to within a few miles of Los Angeles, California.

Some of this desert is sand, but much of it is first class soil, as good as could be found in the garden of Eden or in the world anywhere, but worthless on account of no water.

SUICIDE OF MACDONALD

FAMOUS BRITISH GENERAL ENDS

HIS CAREER WITH A RE-VOLVER SHOT.

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE

Court-martial Was to Have Been Held in Ceylon to Clear Up Allegations Against His Character—Deceased Officer Was Scotland's Pride in the Army of Britain and Was a Brilliant Soldier.

Paris, March 31.—Major General Hector MacDonald, commanding the British forces in Ceylon and one of the foremost officers in the British army, against whom charges based on immoral acts were filed some time ago, committed suicide at the Hotel Regina here. He shot himself in the right temple shortly after noon and expired a few minutes later. The general was alone in his small chamber on the Mezzanine floor of the hotel at the time of the tragedy.

One of the female attendants heard the pistol shot and opening the door saw the general's figure stretched out on the floor with the blood gushing from a bullet wound in the head. She ran screaming to the balcony overlooking the lobby of the hotel where many guests, including a number of ladies, were assembled. The proprietor of the hotel was the first to reach the expiring man. Medical help was immediately summoned, but was found to be useless, death ensuing quickly on the fatal act. The commissary of police was notified and accompanied by a doctor, proceeded to a preliminary investigation. No money or papers of any kind were found in Sir Hector's baggage. Two notes written in English were found lying on a table in his room and these were taken possession of by the authorities, but it is understood that their contents have no bearing on the suicide. In the general's coat lying on the bed, were found some photographs. The British embassy and consulate were notified later, and Consul General Inglis took charge of the body, which was placed on the bed. The door was then locked, the consul general taking the key. The French officers took possession of the revolver.

Sees Resume of Charges.

Sir Hector MacDonald arrived at Paris last Friday evening from London on his way back to Ceylon, where it was understood that an immediate court-martial would be held to clear up charges made against him. On reaching the hotel at 11 o'clock at night he was told that only a small and indifferent room was available. He replied that that was quite sufficient.
He was not accompanied by any aide-de-camp or valet. He said he only intended to stay a day or two in Paris.
Little was seen of him since his arrival. He was, however, in the lobby in the morning and about noon it is believed that a newspaper, printed in English, containing a resume of the grave charges brought against him and embellished with the general's portrait in full uniform, came under his attention. He left the lobby, going to his room, and the pistol shot followed soon after.

No arrangements have yet been made as to the disposition of the body, which is subject to the orders of the British authorities. Both the British embassy and General Inglis have advised London of the tragedy and are awaiting definite instructions. The general's suicide has profoundly shocked the British officials here.
Those about the hotel who had conversed with Sir Hector MacDonald recently say he showed no signs of excitement or mental worry. They described him as of soldierly bearing, slightly under middle height, with bronzed face and a slight gray mustache. He was dressed in a dark gray travelling suit.

Brilliant War Record.

MacDonald rose from the ranks of the Gordon Highlanders. He was captured by the Boers at the battle of Majuba Hill when he was a young officer, his gallant conduct on that occasion winning him the friendship and admiration of Piet Joubert, the famous Boer general. He served with marked distinction in the various minor wars of Great Britain, and commended a portion of Kitchener's cavalry at the battle of Omdurman. After the death of Major General Wauchope at Mag-ersfontein, MacDonald was appointed to the command of the Highland brigade, the most famous body of soldiers in the British army. He was wounded slightly at the battle of Paardeburg before the surrender of Cronle.

His brilliant record was enhanced during the long and arduous campaign in South Africa and he left that "graveyard of military reputations" famed as a cool, courageous and careful officer. He was Scotland's pride in the army and extremely popular in military and civil life.

London, March 28.—The tragic end of "Flying Mac," who, the son of a Highland catar, rose from a position of a draper's assistant to be an honored general in the British army, has caused great surprise and deep sorrow in London.

The newspapers here comment sympathetically on the inexpressibly pitiful end of a brave man, and say that his countrymen will remember him best as the man of whom, on his return from Omdurman, King Edward, then Prince of Wales, greeting him, said:
"In 1875 you were doing sentry go in India and now you are a general in the British army. I am proud to have met you."

rail completely wrecked the eastbound

a severe shaking up.

WELCOME TO BIRTH.

Great Demonstration in London for the Salvation Army General.

London, March 31.—London accorded General William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation army, a great welcome home at the Albert Hall. The immense auditorium was packed from the floor to the roof. There was not a vacant seat in the building, which has a capacity of 9,600 persons, and in spite of the rainy night hundreds were turned away from the door.

General Booth's appearance on the platform was the signal for a remarkable demonstration. The audience rose as one man, fluttering handkerchiefs and programmes and cheering for several minutes, while the bands and the organ added a harmonious note to this thunderous welcome. A spectacular feature of the meeting followed in the review of the various departments of the Salvation army.

The general spoke touchingly on the reception accorded to him throughout America, and the reference he made to the kindness of his reception by President Roosevelt and the distinction shown him as the representative of the Salvation army by the United States congress evoked repeated applause.

PLACED UNDER ARREST

EIGHTEEN MEN OF WATERBURY

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT
WITH INTENT TO KILL.

RESULTS FROM VIOLENCE

Police Endeavoring to Discover Authors of Outbreaks Occurring Since Inauguration of Strike of Street Car Employees in the Connecticut City.
Officials Hope to Learn Something Bearing Upon Mendelssohn Murder.

Waterbury, Conn., March 31.—Eighteen men placed under arrest on the charge of assault with intent to kill was the record of activity on the part of the police in their efforts to discover the authors of some of the outbreaks of violence that have occurred since the beginning of the strike of motormen and conductors of the Connecticut Railway and Lighting company eleven weeks ago.

The men arrested are charged in the warrants with assault on William T.
Merner and George Morrisette, on the night of Feb. 26, with intent to kill.
These two men were the nonunion employees of the trolley company who had charge of a car which was attacked at a lonely spot on the Waterville line.
Both were assaulted and one was beaten into insensibility and left lying on the rails. This occurred a little more than a week prior to an attack of a similar nature on a car at Forest Park when Policeman Paul Mendelssohn was killed by a bullet from a mob of masked men. While the arrests are nominally for the assault of Feb. 26, the officials do not deny that they hope from this action to learn something that will clear up the mystery of Mendelssohn's death.

Colonel L. F. Burpee, attorney for the Connecticut Railway and Lighting company, said that he had strong evidence against the men arrested for the Waterville assault, and that he felt confident of tracing out the murderer of Officer Mendelssohn. Colonel Burpee added that warrants for twenty-two men have been issued, and that he expected that the whole number would be under arrest soon.

Of the arrested men seven are members of the trolley men's union, now on strike.
Although the officials decline to indicate the nature of the evidence on which the arrests are based, a report which seemed to be reliable was current in the afternoon to the effect that one man would turn state's evidence.

SHOWS ITS STRENGTH.

Organized Labor Closes Down Massachusetts Cotton Mills.

Lowell, Mass., March 31.—Organized textile labor showed its strength in the shutdown of the seven largest cotton mills here, and not content with this, the textile council, the delegate body of the local unions, considered the advisability of compelling an even wider application of the shutdown order by bringing about a strike in the Lawrence hosiery mill. This hosiery mill was exempted from the strike order last week, the knitters' union believing permitted to remain neutral, as it had shown that it had no grievance either in wages or time schedule.
The council did not find the proposition well received and the outlook is not favorable for a strike of the knitters.

This incident was the chief one of the first day of the unprecedented shutdown of the big cotton mills in Lowell. Operatives wore their best clothes and promenaded the sidewalks; no smoke came from the tall mill chimneys and there was an absence of the hum of industry which marks a rushing, bustling New England mill city. No trouble of any kind occurred at the mill gates, through which some operatives passed at different times, and nothing occurred on the streets or at the meeting places of the strikers to bring forth criticism.

Labor unions met, some fourteen of them, and they were addressed by either their own officers or prominent labor men of other bodies.

The running of the hosiery mill, it is said by labor men, may lead to some friction a little later, despite the permitted neutrality of the knitters.
The loom fixers' union has chosen walking delegates to visit other New England cities and inform unions of the situation in Lowell.

The Greeks held a meeting and decided against joining the union or drawing any money from the union treasury.

AFTER A DRAMATIC SCENE.

Seattle Grand Jury Returns Indictments Against City Officials.

Seattle, Wash., March 31.—After a dramatic scene in court, in which representative members of the local bar resorted to every means in their power to prevent it, the grand jury returned all the indictments which it had voted during the past two weeks, including those against the mayor, chief of police, justices and other prominent men in the community.

In all nineteen indictments were returned, seven of which are against petty offenders. A number of the more prominent ones are also withheld from the minutes of the court.

AGREEMENT REACHED.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 31.—The association, representing all the plants

one year from April 1.

with a suite consisting of half a dozen

GET STRONG

Vinol Makes Weak
People Strong.

WE GUARANTEE IT WILL DO SO.

WE KNOW OF NO TONIC OR RE-BUILDER LIKE IT.

Vinol does create strength.
We know that and have proved it in many instances.

The reason Vinol rejuvenates and strengthens a person is that it acts directly upon the stomach, strengthening and toning up this great vital organ and enabling it to obtain for itself, from the food that is taken into it, the elements which are required to make firm healthy flesh and muscle tissue, sound bone structure and pure healthy blood.

Vinol does this in a scientific way and is enabled to do it because it contains, dissolved in a delicate mild wine, in a highly concentrated state, the active principles of cod-liver oil.

Vinol does not contain any of the grease that formerly characterized cod-liver oil, hence is free from all the objectionable features which made it impossible for patients to take or retain that vile-smelling remedy into their stomach.

Vinol in its favorable action upon the stomach and other organs of the body acts also in a beneficial way upon the nerves and brain, and will be found to be invaluable to brain workers as well as body workers.

The following letter is from a well-known author. It reads as follows:
"I wish to acknowledge the receipt of the Vinol and testify to its great benefits. Since taking it I am much improved in health, and during the intense heat of last August I should not have been able to continue in my literary work if it had not been for the strengthening properties of Vinol.
Yours in gratitude."—ELLA STARR, 106
W. 82d St., N. Y. City.

We wish any one suffering from weakness, a nervous, or a susceptibility to wasting diseases, to call on us and hear what we have to say in regard to Vinol.

Try it on our recommendation, and if you find it does not do everything we claim for it, we will gladly refund to you the amount you have paid us.

Where Life Is Strenuous.

Here in the northwest one encounters the living representation of the strenuous life. Here men work together in a way unknown anywhere else. The east is insular, every man for himself. The northwest, indeed the whole west, has learned the value of co-operation and community interest. Migrating to a new country, with difficulties and dangers on every hand, the people have been forced to combine and stand with solid front to the world. As a result innumerable organizations have sprung up having for their purpose the advancement of some community interest.—Ray Stannard Baker in Century
